Miss Geraldine Carsley

DEDICATION

In appreciation, honor and friendship we the Senior Class of 1958 dedicate our yearbook, "The Green Years" to Miss Geraldine Carsley. Miss Carsley has done much for Abington High School. We realize that we can never repay her in full for her many years of service. She has never failed to help us in any way as Senior Advisor, teacher and faculty accountant. We hope that this dedication may partially serve to repay her for her years of friendship and service.

FOREWORD

With great pride, we, the "Class of 1958" present to you our yearbook. Many hours of hard work by our editors and committees have made this publication possible. We now invite you to read over with us many experiences we have had through Abington High School, and we hope your trip "Along the Road of Memories" will be as enjoyable as our journey has been.

Our school year is drawing to a close, and another senior class will graduate. Some say it is like all the rest, but most of us know it is different in many ways. We have had the usual ups and downs, yet, everyone in our modest Senior Class will take his or her position in life; filling that position which can never be filled by anyone else. Best of luck to every senior from your Yearbook Staff.

Mr. Gianoulis, Principal; Mr. Murray, Assistant Principal; Mr. Hastings, Guidance Director.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. John Gianoulis
Principal.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To each one of you, who are members of the Class of 1958, I extend my best wishes and congratulations. May your "Green Years" quickly become "Mature Years!"

Perhaps the latter thought may tend to startle you, and you may ask, "Why should anyone wish for the joys of youth to pass quickly and for maturity to come soon?" The answer to such a question is, of course, quite simple. None of us is here to lead a life of self-indulgence and personal aggrandizement. Quite the contrary, each is given the gift of life, so he may develop his personal talents in such a way that a contribution can be made to the building of a better world for all men.

Youth need not be synonymous with immaturity, nor maturity with age, for these terms may bespeak a quality of thinking rather than the mere passage of time during a life. An aged man whose thinking has kept pace with his years by reading, study, and action may be regarded as "young," while, similarly, to others may be thought of a "mature" person. Such persons, young in spirit and mature in mind, will find all of life challenging and interesting.

I venture to predict that when your "Green Years" become "Mature Years" you, with the help of God, may find the way to a spiritual richer life for yourself and to a nobler, finer world for others. In all you do, remember that an immature man alone occupies a rather small space, but a mature man and his God fill eternity.

Mr. Gilbert Bristol
Superintendent of Schools.

A GOOD FRIEND

MR. JAMES McCUE

Throughout our freshman and sophomore years and a portion of our junior year, we were fortunate to have as class advisor, teacher, and friend, Mr. James McCue.

We will always remember the wonderful algebra and chemistry classes, in which we gained in knowledge, that was presented in such a way that we could not help but hunger for more.

But our association with "Diamond Jim" prospered even more in extra-curricular activities. None of us will ever forget the night Mr. McCue made a vain attempt to refuse admittance to the entertainment for our Sophomore Hop, or the times when he and the rest of the men on the faculty took part in the rallies, or the occasion when we as juniors attended a mammoth Christmas party given by the McCue brothers in the laboratory. This was definitely the wildest party at A. H. S.

In all seriousness, however, we the class of '58' will never fail to appreciate all that Mr. McCue did for us and we feel that this page is the best expression of our thanks.

During the past year the Underclassmen have done much for the school. Their spirit and willingness to work are only two of the many reasons for us as Seniors to remember that we have known them along the way.

CLASS OF 1959

The "Class of '59" during this past year added much to the future unity of Abington High School. They introduced the idea of a unified design for the class ring thereby making it a school ring. They have participated willingly in many school functions. Their glowing school spirit has made it apparent that they will have a successful senior year.

Like other Junior Classes in the past they look forward with anticipation to their Prom and to the time when they will become Seniors.

CLASS OF 1960

Contradictory to the fact that the Sophomore Class was usually not in a position to contribute materially to the welfare of the school, the overwhelming spirit of the Class of "60" paid no attention to the bonds which hindered previous classes. They went right to work upon the commencement of school by contributing the majority of the girls to the Abington High School drill team. This added much to the atmosphere and spirit of the football games and rallies.

Beyond this they are one of the first classes to realize as sophomores the tremendous financial obligations which they will have to face during their senior year. To this end they instituted a splendid system of collecting class dues.

CLASS OF 1961

This year due to the overcrowded situation, the Freshman Class has been forced to attend school in the afternoon. Under these adverse conditions the Class of '61 has been deprived of many of the activities which are available to the upperclassmen. Despite all obstacles the Freshman Class has developed their own system of self government, independent from the remainder of the school. This involved the creation of the new Freshman Executive Council composed of the class president and home room officers. This served as the guiding body until the complete staff of class officers were elected in January. Next year the Freshman Class looks forward to participating in the activities of the school.

One of the many factors that helped to make our years at A.H.S. rewarding and enjoyable, was the fine program of activities. This is another of the many reasons we Seniors will remember Abington High as we travel our separate ways after graduation.

ACTIVITIES

Led by the class officers we as juniors parade through our "Spring Dream."

JUNIOR PROM

CLASS HISTORY

Freshmen

On the first Wednesday, following Tuesday and before Thursday, after Labor Day, we the shy, retiring, backward, illiterate, supercilious, enhancing Class of "58" were welcomed via the back-stair fire escape by our future principal, educators, and friends. After being orientated, we took it upon ourselves to do as we pleased and we did! Elected officers were: President, Richard Nadolny; Vice-President, Ann Bailey; Secretary, Kathy Ashton and Treasurer, Kathy Kelly. During this year, we received an unwelcomed member in the form of a watermelon, Tom Hines.

A 6 and 0 record, which was by the way, 6 losses and 0 wins, gave us a minute glimpse of the greater heights we would not attain in football.

Being financial wizards, for which we later became famous, we were the first frosh class not to go into the hole after our Freshman Frolic. Although we got out friendly, fresh, frosh feet soaked by the rain, our so-called Freshman Flop was a great success and we wound up with the grand total of $28.

We ended our inexperienced first year at A.H.S. by plugging all the empty lockers, packing our lunches, and then taking the $2 Jiminy Cricket Tour to College Pond. All went well that day until four red-faced girls returned from their "site seeing tour" only to have to answer some embarrassing questions.

Sophomores

Bang! Cherry Bombs, Flying Air Planes and Squirt Pistols, the Sophomore Class has arrived lugubriously. For this panic-stricken year, we elected four horror-stricken members of our Class to lead us. President, Bruce MacPherson; Vice-President, Michael Keith; Secretary, Marilyn Cole; and Treasurer, Kathy Ashton.

Episode No. 1 was the walking biological survey man, Samuel, "Watch my educated hands; you are supposed to be 'IT', now show me; you'll never find this in any textbook; I'm going by the point system; there's a certain person in this class that is getting on my nerves;" Gregory. Quote No. 1: "Science projects are not compulsory, but if you don't want an 'E', do one ! !"

Starting our Sophomore year, we entered the unwelcomed realm of the Roman Empire. Great Caesar's Ghost! There was Mr. G. During this class we came up with the greatest poet since Aristotle. Hey Kathy Doherty ? ? ?

Boy! Did we have some tremendous, stupendous parties this year. The only trouble is we can't remember when or where they were held, or who, if anybody, was there. Another lapse in memory seems to be that we can't remember what boys tore down the goal-posts and fences of our rivals the night before the annual game.

Then came the Sophomore Hop and the fun began. Our class advisor, Money Bags McCue used all his hot air blowing up balloons accompanied by Bruce, who ummm ? ? ? borrowed ? ? ? a fish line to hold up all the balloons. The evening was a big success. Although, Cautious McCue almost sent the night's entertainment home because he thought they looked like trouble. About this time, we were beginning to think this class was all wet because it rained again this year on the night of our big event.

We all hopped off to Morton's Park for our class outing which proved interesting in more ways than one. After we brushed away the trash left by the illustrious Class of "57" the boys started off with a bang! There were lots of embarrassed boys due to a slip. Hey! Ethel ? ? ? Why did the girls get spanked when they got off the bus ? ? ? There is a right time for everything. Hey! Pattison ? ? ? All ended peacefully, believe it or not.

Juniors

With a new sense of authority, being upper classmen, we thought it appropriate to crawl out of our lockers which we had been in for the last two years. We elected a fine slate of officers to lead us. President, Bruce MacPherson; Vice-President, Joseph Corliss; Secretary, Marilyn Cole; and as our Treasurer, John Nero.

As we put the year in first, we recharged Battery Street at the modest home of Barbara A. Donovan. T'was the night before Halloween, when all through the streets, came the running footsteps of "Great Junior Feets". Lamb and Wham! with a red paint can, got caught red handed, before they ran. As Pancho was casing the joint, ALAS, He let fly an apple right through the glass . . . Meanwhile, back on the BORGWARD; As the soap cleared away and the girls stopped their play, FAT BOY'S car was no longer a bright shiny gray.

Soon we were all looking forward to the big event of the year. The Junior Prom. Hey Kel! Weren't your geraniums kind of early ? ? ? Miss Ann Bailey was chosen Queen and sat on our beautifully decorated swan. Lois Robertson and Maureen Curley were chosen as her attendants. We owe the success of our tremendous Prom to the combined effort and time of Nancy Hill, Sonny LaFerrier, Jackie McLellan, and Judie Higgins. We couldn't seem to get away from tradition for it rained again this night. After the Prom we all met at the Hobomock Inn and enjoyed fine food and dancing. Does everyone remember the noise of Peter "there goes my silverware" Cobb ? ? ?

Smoothly shifting into third, we wound up the year for our class outing at Falmouth Beach. Tommy "I'm still wrapped around her little finger" Hines was the center attraction with his poses on the beach. Mishaps of the day were, Moe's flat tire and Henny's cut foot.

Seniors

After the boys got thrown out of Scituate and the girls out of Camp Edwards, we entered the Hallowed Halls of A.H.S. To start our reign of terror, we elected as our officers: President, Joe "I finally got my license" Corliss; Vice-President, Bruce "Ain't found my ring yet" MacPherson; Secretary, Marilyn "I was drafted by Sam" Cole; and Treasurer, John "Have you paid your class dues?" Nero.

ZORRO strikes ! ! at nine hundred lockers this year but Mr. G.'s efforts to capture the criminals were in vain. In order to help Mr. G., "Three little kittens" Blake helped the cause by filling a turnover with Three Little Kittens cat food. How did it taste "BOYS" ? ? ?

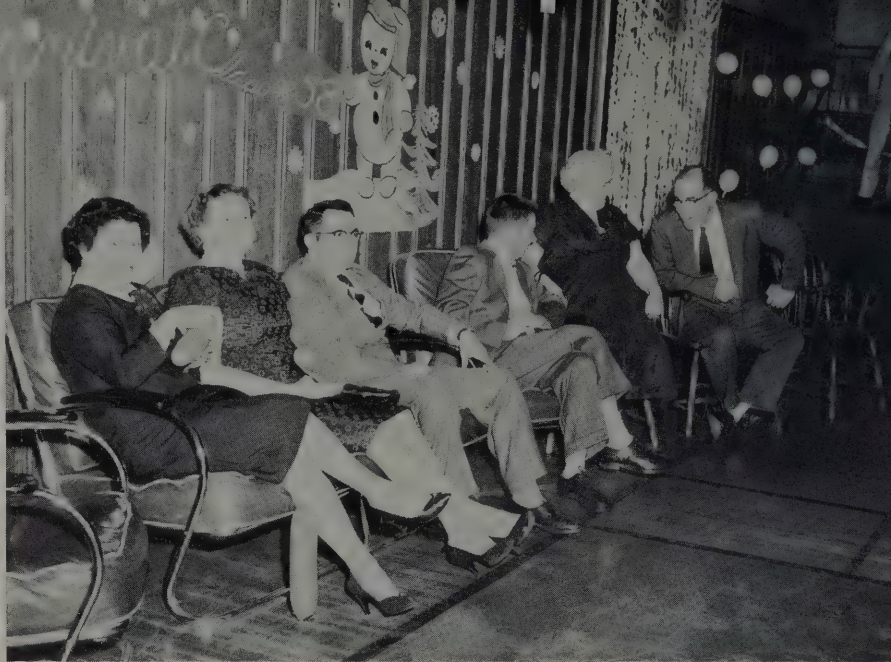

Memorandum . . . shifting the years into reverse, we find we have forgotten to mention our best cheering squad . . . THAT RIGHT, BOYS ? ? ? What boys got caught peeking from behind the curtains watching the girls' cheering tryouts and soon found out that they were the ones trying out . . . and that the girls were watching them? REVERSE ORDER, HUH ? ? ? Some of these boys were so good they performed at our rally. They were Richard Pattison, John Nero, Bruce MacPherson, Michael Keith, David Carmichael and Steve Frohock.

The first big event of the year was our Winter Carnival, which was by-the-way the most successful and profitable carnival ever held at A.H.S. But again it rained! Our one and only hope is that it rains on our Reception Night so we will be sure to be in the swim of things.

Our Class Play cost us nothing because we begged, borrowed and stole all the properties and costumes. In charge of this was Tom "eleven dollar" Hines, who lifted the hinges right off the door, nailed the nail box to the table and drove a spike through eleven books. Curtain Going Up was the most sensational class play held at A.H.S. Even the teachers thought so and Mr. G. slang his praise as usual. The star of the show was Mike "Sees All—Knows All—And Tells Nothing" Bird.

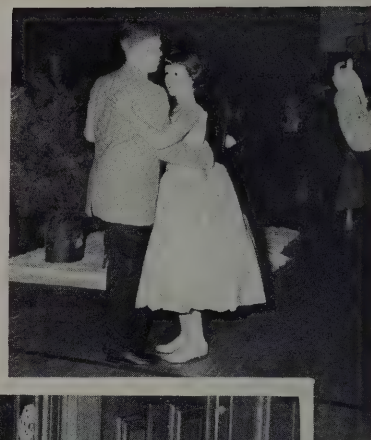

We wish to thank all those who have made these last four years the Best Years of Our Life ! ! ! WELL ! ! ! will the students please remain seated while the guests pass out!

WINTER CARNIVAL

This year saw one of the best Winter Carnivals in many years. The dance was sponsored by the Senior Fund Raising Committee. The Cloves provided the music to go with the wonderful decorations. The only sour note was struck by four Senior boys.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Finishing the 1957-1958 season with a 9-9 record Coach Divoll's hoopsters, with a nucleus of strong underclassmen, offered a promise of more victories in the future. Rangy Dick Nadolny and speedy Mike Keith hit for numerous points during the season. They were backed by the consistent and capable play of Captain Pete Holbrook, Jim Winders, Richard Pattison and Joe Corliss. As a promise of things to come fans witnessed fine play by Captain-elect Alan Ramo and sophomore Ronnie Tyni.

1957-1958 SEASON

1st Row, Left to Right: E. Bowser, C. Bienvenue, D. Henrikson, S. Shannon, D. Smith, M. DeCoster, J. Sullivan, N. Damon, N. Hill. 2nd Row: B. Bowser, J. Page, M. Polson, D. Page, N. Field, B. Blake, K. Doherty, J. Bean, S. Smith, M. Hewett, J. Hoyt. 3rd Row: S. Gervais, P. Coleman, B. Stone, M. Plante, E. Kristianson, P. Philbrick, M. Kelliher, C. Pihl, B. Page.

The field hockey season was late in starting this year due to the weather; but once under way, it ran smoothly even though the "flu" tried to interrupt.

According to the scorebook, the season was not very successful; however, the experience of playing, the enjoyment and the sportsmanship are the things that really count.

The Varsity Team was led by Co-Captains Donna Henrikson and Sheila Shannon, while the Junior Varsity Team was led by Diane Smith and Melinda DeCoster.

FIELD HOCKEY

CHEERLEADERS

1957-1958

Throughout our years at Abington High School every time our Football and Basketball teams played a game they were loyally supported by the student body led by our outstanding group of Cheerleaders.

This past Fall at each of the Four Big Football Rallies our vivacious cheerleaders entertained with several delightfully humorous skits. The Senior cheerleaders—Carolyn Olson, Ann Bailey, Kathy Ashton, Claire Pettee and Maureen Curley—will be missed when the Fall and Football roll around.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Girls' Basketball Team had the full support of the school as they played a series of spirited games during the 1858 season. The promise of more wins was seen in the abundance of able underclassmen on the squad. The fine sportsmanship of A.H.S. was apparent in the girls' games this year as it is in every sport in which our school participates.

IN GRATITUDE

The 1958 Yearbook Staff wishes to express their fullest thanks and deepest gratitude to the parents, friends, and merchants who have so generously given financial support to the "Green Years". Without this cooperation and support our publication would not have been possible. Again, many thanks.

To Nancy,

Will you ever forget 4th
period French class? I know I never will. Remember the night of the Prom? I guess all in all I really had a good time. I never forget what a bit out is until that night. Well our senior year is almost here and what a ball we will have. I hope next year
things stay the same
and we are still best
as friends.

Always

a tremendous personality that I shall never forget. To a very friendly help everyone and has done much for our class. I wish the best of luck and happiness always. You deserve the best and I am sure you will receive it if you stay the very way you are and keep
